Thirty-First Sunday of the year – Reflection: God, who is love, created us to love and so that we can love others while remaining united with him. It would be misleading to claim to love our neighbour without loving God; and it would also be deceptive to claim to love God without loving our neighbour. The two dimensions of love, for God and for neighbour, in their unity characterize the disciple of Christ. May the Virgin Mary help us to welcome and bear witness in everyday life to this luminous lesson. (Pope Francis)

Confessions will be celebrated after Monday evening and Friday evening Mass.

Pray for the soul of Michael Monahan, Tiernaneill, Monaghan. May he rest in peace

There will be a Novena of Masses celebrated for the Faithful Departed during the month of November. Traditional list of November Masses for the Dead is available in the church. It may be completed, put into an envelope and placed in the basket in front of the Altar or you may wish to leave it in the parochial house letter box.

SYNOD on SYNODALITY - The final document from the 16th Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod has been published and is available below as a working translation in English. In a departure from usual practice, Pope Francis said, "I want... to recognise the value of the completed synodal journey, which through this document I hand over to the holy faithful people of God.... There are already very concrete indications in the document that can be a guide for the mission of the Churches, on the different continents, in the different contexts: that is why I am making it immediately available to everyone." Our synodal pathway journey in Ireland and locally here in our diocese will continue over the months ahead, taking this as a guide. The document can be accessed here - ENG-final-document-Synod-2021-24.pdf
