The Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed Monday 2 November: All Souls.

'Indeed, the Church in its pilgrim members, from the very earliest days of the Christian religion, has honoured with great respect the memory of the dead; and 'because it is a holy and a wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins' (2 Mac 12:46) she offers her suffrages for them.

Norms for Indulgences at the Commemoration of All Souls: From twelve o'clock noon on 1 November until midnight on 2 November, all who have confessed, received Holy Communion and prayed for the pope's intentions (one Our Father and Hail Mary, or any other prayer of one's choice) can gain one plenary indulgence by visiting a church or oratory, and there reciting one Our Father and the Apostle's Creed. This indulgence is applicable only to the souls of the departed. Confession may be made at any time within the week preceding or the week following 1 November. Holy Communion may be received on any day from 1 November to 8 November. The faithful who visit a cemetery and pray for the dead may gain a plenary indulgence applicable only to the Holy Souls on the usual conditions once per day from 1 to 8 November. The conditions mentioned above apply also for this.

Pray for the souls of Frances Treanor, Derrykinnighbeg and Canon Brian McCluskey PE, retired Parish Priest of Roslea. May they rest in peace.

Confessions: Monday morning after 9.30am and Monday evening after 7.30pm Mass, and after Friday evening Mass.
